

Shaded region = yield at or above openfield parity with N leaching at or below the openfield value.