

Shaded region = yield at or above openfield parity with the outcome improved. A scenario benefiting all three environmental domains would fall in the shaded region of the lower three rows.