

Percolation = vertical flux past the base of the profile; drain flow = lateral flux intercepted by field drains. Separate model outputs; not additive.