

Shaded region = yield at or above open-field parity with the environmental outcome improved. A scenario benefiting all three domains would fall in the shaded region of all three rows.